Broadcaster and advocate for youth wellbeing, Martin Roberts, is delighted to announce details of his 2nd www.Achieve.co.uk weekend, taking place at Brunel's Old Station (The Passenger Shed), in Bristol on 13th and 14th October 2018. Guest speakers hosted by Martin himself include (in alphabetical order): Calum Best; David Domoney; Eddie "The Eagle" Edwards; Roger Frampton; Jaco van Gass; Lord-Lieutenant Mrs Peaches Golding OBE; Helen Lederer; Nigel Owens MBE; Dilys Price OBE and Gregg Wallace, amongst others. In addition to hearing a unique line-up of celebrity and industry expert talks, visitors will be able to sign up to interactive workshops, as well as engage with a variety of grass roots exhibitors and relevant brands, associations and experiences from around the UK. Exclusive weekend packages are also available, to include a VIP Breakfast with Martin. Dean Heitman of Totally Shredded will be opening and closing both days.

According to Martin:-

"I am delighted to be hosting my 2nd Achieve weekend in October 2018. The primary purpose of Achieve is to help and inspire people of any age to have the confidence to make small changes to their lives. In addition, Achieve is a brand with a social purpose, whereby funds are donated to The Martin Roberts Foundation for child protection and welfare. If we can encourage children to speak out about the good AND the bad, through empowerment and mindfulness, they will be better equipped to create their own version of SUCCESS and ACHIEVEMENT as they grow up.

"To achieve success in any aspect of our life is hard – it takes commitment, sacrifice, encouragement and determination – all of which can be natural deterrents to success. Achieve has been designed as a motivational event to inspire visitors to take action, regardless of their age or social circumstances. Nothing happens if we sit still yet knowing where to start is often a stumbling block. I am committed to delivering cutting edge and original speaker content and exhibitors so that Achieve becomes one of the key 'go-to' annual family events," added Martin.
